It attracted such attention that an effort was made to secure it for the Minnesota state fair and for the Missouri state fair; but it will be sent to the Interstate fair at Sloux City on urgent request from the managers there.

News Notes of Glenwood GLENWOOD, Ia., Sept. II.-(Special.)-The Southwestern lows Medical society met at Corning yesterday. An unusually interesting program was discussed. About 100 physicians were in attendance. The September, 1915, meeting will be held at Glenwood and will be a two-day session. Dr. F. E. Herrick of Ottumwa was elected president, Dr. George Mogridge of Glenwood, vice Dr. Encs Mitchell of Welden, secretary-treasurer. Progress on the Glenwood armory has been delayed somewhat by a strike of bricklayers. Trouble between "tenders" and the superintendent of construction is said to be the beginning of the trouble. Several of the employes were jailed yesterday for offences growing out of the disagreement.

THOMAS HARRY JAMES IS DEAD AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Thomas H. James, better known as Harry James, died yesterday about noon at his home, 923 Fifth avenue, after an illness of more than a year from Bright's disease. His death, however, came unexpectedly after an acute illness of less than two weeks due to heart trouble. Mr. James was one of the pioneer merchants of the city.

Mr. James was 64 years old. He was born February 2, 1850, in Bucks county, Pennsylvania. He came to Council Bluffs in 1969 and was a continuous resident For many years he operated a general store and later devoted his time exclusively to the grocery business. For a number of years he was associated with W. E. Haverstock under the firm name of James & Haverstock. Their last place of business was in the Merriam block, into which they moved more than twentyfive years ago. Mr. James retired from business a number of years ago, devoting his time to looking after property and financial interests.

Judge Wheeler is still listening to the testimony in the suit brought by the hondholders to get possession of the lowa & Omaha Short Line railroad, better known as the Treynor Interurban, under foreclosure proceedings. It was not expected there would be any difficulty in securing possession under foreclosure of the mortgage given to secure the bonds, but haif a dozen alleged craditors have intervened, among them Colonel Adams, the promoter William Saar, one of the wealthy farmers who contributed more than 330.000 to finance the road, testified on the witness stand yesterday that he had put $160,00 into the unfortunate enterprise. The farmers are the bondholders, and if they should get the road without additional cost their loss would still be more than 30 per cent. The claims of the intervenors approximate many thousand dollars.

Mrs. Martha E. Roe, wife of Dr. L. E. Roe, died yesterday morning after an illness of three months due to a general breaking down. Mrs. Roe had resided in Council Bluffs since 1875 and during all of that time was active in church and social work. She was one of the active and helpful members of the First Congregational church. Mrs. Roe was born July 23, 1853, in New York state. In October, 1885, she was married to Dr. Roe in Chicago. She leaves besides her husband, one daughter. Mrs. J. H. Grier, and one son. James L. Roe. Her brother, J. R. Hice, and his wife were both killed in the Easter tornade, more than a year ago. The funeral will probably be held on Sunday, although arrangements have not yet been definitely made. Dr. J. T. Jones of the First Congregational church will conduct the services.
